

Our young people are our future. They need a radio station like K-LOVE to encourage them, to give them hope, and to give them a purpose. Young people, as well as old, need to be encouraged daily and reminded daily, that there is so much more out there than violence and hatred. We need K-LOVE radio station!